Chelsea Chic Blooms in Kent's Highest Village

Reputed to be the highest village in Kent, you are surely guaranteed a good view from Knockholt, situated just outside Sevenoaks. However the view has recently been improved as the annual 'Summer Showcase' at Cooling's Nurseries provides one of the most inspiring and colourful displays of plants seen outside the famous Chelsea Flower Show.

The display, which features over 300 different varieties, started off as a trial for the assessment of plants by the award winning retail nursery.
