LIZ ELY'S FAREWELL DITTY

I wish that you had all known me before my head exploded; but if, like me, it never happened, then we never would have known that ICARE existed.

Wednesday morning, 14 years ago, I got to the door and a friendly face said "hello"; I thought it would be so quiet and dull, but all I saw were people smiling and having fun.

I was given the nickname "Luscious Liz" because of my job, and that's what I became! I was introduced to, and sat next to, Frank from day one. He has made me laugh and reduced me to tears with all his quips and swearing; its been music to my ears.

I learnt to paint, but not very well, but I think you auctioned one of my paintings for one hundred pounds.

Open Days, Christmas Parties, its such a wonderful place;
But I have to say goodbye to you all, as I am moving far away.
So, Westward Ho! We are on our way
Off to Truro for a quieter life
"Oh no" says David "A quieter life?"
"Now there's the daughter AND the wife!"

I shall miss you all but I'll keep in touch.

And if you come to Truro one day, please come in and see us.

So, thank you all for such a wonderful place – Wednesdays will never be the same.

It's a part of my life I'll never forget.

Love,
Liz
